

Author’s Name and Surname: Maria Bednarska

Subject: The educational project in promoting the świętokrzyskie region

Introduction

The lesson plan includes the information on the different types/ranges of projects (school, local, European). Beginning with project definition, through its stages and features regarding management and the role of the teacher in the use of method of the project. The following lesson plan helps to systemize participants’ knowledge and focus their attention on the project substance in education along with the possibility of using methods in the preparation of projects related to the region. Suggested exercise is a reflection on what is and is not a project, the discussion with the participants will allow to exchange experiences in this field.

The ideas initiated by the teachers concerning the promotion of Chęciny / Bodzentyn and Świętokrzyskie region will be developed in subsequent classes, and they will result in writing the project.

The aims:

Students/Participants will:

- recall and systematize the knowledge regarding project itself;
- focus on the area related to project management;
- learn about the most frequently committed errors using the method of project;
- suggest a topic for an educational project related to świętokrzyskie region and one idea about the project associated with Chęciny / Bodzentyn.

Methods and Forms:

lecture supported by Microsoft PowerPoint presentation, discussion, individual and team work

TBF – Ku lepszemu przyszłości – Edukacja jako miejsce promocji regionów Świętokrzyskiego i Abruzzo

Teaching aids:

- Microsoft PowerPoint presentation;
- Flipcharts, markers;
- Attachment No 1 - Is it a project or not?
- Attachment No 2 - Writing a project in accordance with questioning criteria that one need to ask oneself before one starts writing.
- Attachment No 3 - What is the difference between a project and a homework?
- Attachment No 4 - Writing a project in accordance with „Wh-questions” inspired by Laswell’s method.
- Attachment No 5 - Stages of a project according to W. Emera i K. D. Lenzena
- Attachment No 6 - Method of project and the most frequently committed errors while using it.
- Attachment No 7 - Project chart
- Attachment No 8 - PPT presentation

Duration:

3 didactic hours.